

Honouring Harpreet Cheema and His Wife for summiting Mount Everest

The GENCO Alumni Association is delighted to announce a special honour for Harpreet Cheema, an esteemed alumnus from the class of 1998, and his wife Navneet Kaur Cheema. We are proud of them for summiting Mount Everest as the first Sikh couple to scale mount Everest together. Their outstanding achievement and contribution have brought immense pride to our institution.

On May 23, 2024, at 7:50 AM, Harpreet and Navneet Kaur Cheema became the first Sikh couple to raise the Nishan Sahib at the summit of Mount Everest, standing at an awe-inspiring 8848.86 meters. This represents a significant milestone for the Sikh community.

Harpreet Cheema, a distinguished alumnus of the G.N.D.E.C, has always been a beacon of excellence and dedication. His journey from the corridors of GNDEC to his current stature is a testament to his hard work, perseverance, and unwavering commitment to excellence.

Mrs. Navneet Kaur Cheema, a dynamic individual in her own right, has complemented Harpreet's efforts with her dedication. Together, they form a powerhouse duo whose collective efforts have significantly impacted their community and beyond.

The GENCO Alumni Association is proud to recognize and celebrate the remarkable achievements of Harpreet Cheema and his wife Navneet Kaur Cheema. Their accomplishments serve as an inspiration to current students and fellow alumni, demonstrating the heights that can be reached with dedication and passion.

We look forward to honouring Harpreet and his wife in a ceremony that befits their contributions. We feel proud in celebrating their success and acknowledging their significant role in uplifting the values and reputation of GNDEC.

Let us come together to applaud and celebrate the remarkable journey of Harpreet Cheema and his wife.

Gurbir Singh Sandhu

(President)

GENCO Alumni Association