

Dear Friends

Most of you may not be aware that multi talented Global Rapper, Singer, Songwriter and Politician Sidhu Moosewala was first of all a Genconian. He graduated from our college in Electrical Engineering in 2016. After graduation, Moosewala moved to Brampton, Ontario state in Canada. He studies at Humber College. He released his first song "G Wagon" on 2nd of July 2017 and then never looked back. You can read in detail all about his short but 'full of fame' life using the link given here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sidhu_Moose_Wala

Moosewala visited his Alma mater on many occasions, but we show you here when he was on the stage of College Auditorium on the "Alumni Interaction Day" on 20th of March 2021.

Sidhu Moosewala moving in corridors of his Alma mater Guru Nanak Engg College, Ludhiana along with his college student fans near his favorite Elect Machine Lab being an Elect Engineering student himself.
